

Grievance Redressal Committee

A grievance redressal system is essential for any organization to function smoothly. It provides a mechanism for students and staffs to raise and resolve their concerns in a fair and impartial manner. The College Grievance Redressal Committee was formed as per UGC guidelines to address the grievances. The Committee is headed by the principal and consists of senior faculty members and student representatives. The Committee receives grievances from the principal and looks into them depending on the seriousness of the issue. The Committee members strive to resolve all grievances in a timely and effective manner, with the goal of creating a harmonious and conducive atmosphere for everyone on campus.

Objectives:

- To create a system to resolve student and staff grievances.
- To provide immediate access to grievance redressal for both staff and students.
- To investigate the causes of dissatisfaction.
- To educate members on their duties and responsibilities.

Functions of the Grievance and Redressal Committee

- To receive complaints from both students and staff concerning the system.
- To establish and put into action a system for addressing the reported complaints.
- To forward the results to the Management when deemed necessary for subsequent actions.
- To listen to, record, and investigate grievances from staff and students promptly and thoroughly, and take the necessary actions.
- To prioritize grievances based on their authenticity and seriousness.
- To forward grievances to the relevant department, such as maintenance, transportation, academics, or amenities.
- To organize regular meetings to assess the resolution status of the grievances.
- To conduct regular follow-ups on these issues until they are ultimately resolved.
- To keep the grievances confidential, if necessary.
